

ATR Readiness Checklist

Category	Item	Status	Notes
1. Community Planning	We have identified why we need additional reserve land (e.g. housing, economic development, cultural use).	☐ Yes ☐ No
	The land addition supports our communities CCP (Comprehensive Community Plan or Land Use Plan or additional strategic plans.	☐ Yes ☐ No
	The Community has been informed or engaged with about potential ATR.	☐ Yes ☐ No
2. Land Identification	Specific land parcel(s) for ATR have been identified.	☐ Yes ☐ No
	Legal land description and boundaries are available.	☐ Yes ☐ No
	The land is within or near our traditional territory.	☐ Yes ☐ No
3. Land Ownership	The land is already owned by the First Nation or is there a plan to acquire it?	☐ Yes ☐ No
	Title is clear of encumbrances or a legal review has begun.	☐ Yes ☐ No
4. Environmental Review	Environmental Site Assessment (ESA) Phase I has been completed or is underway.	☐ Yes ☐ No
	If needed, ESA Phase II or remediation is planned?	☐ Yes ☐ No
5. Government Engagement	A Band Council Resolution (BCR) supporting the ATR has been drafted or passed	☐ Yes ☐ No
	Initial Contact has been made with Indigenous Services Canada (ISC)	☐ Yes ☐ No
6. Municipal/Provincial Engagement	If applicable, the local municipality has been contacted	☐ Yes ☐ No
	Municipal service Agreement (MSA) discussion has started or are planned.	☐ Yes ☐ No
7. Capacity and Support	We have staff or advisors to help manage the ATR process (legal, technical, administrative).	☐ Yes ☐ No
	Funding Sources for ATR preparation have been identified.	☐ Yes ☐ No

